Dear Mr. Cohen, 6/20

Thanks for your kind note.

I am continuing my work.

I do have a book ready to print, but I haven't the money.

Publishers won't touch the subject responsibly and are uneasy with me because I opened it, invented the "underground" book and for other reasons.

Aside from the completed book, I am working on a number of others.

Besides this I continue, as best I can when broke, to press for new information and I do get it. I mean significant stuff.

But the financial situation precludes immediate publication of anything.

We barely make out and there are none of means, no fiundations, who really give a damn.

But letters like yours give us a good feeling, so thanks.

Sincerely,
